DEMPSEY FLOORED BY JIM FLYNN

'Knockout Drop' Comes in Twenty Seconds—Dempsey Gets No Chance at Pueblo Man.

Salt Lake, Feb. 14.—Exit Dempsey! A "one-two" to the jaw was about all there was to the much-advertised battle at Murray last night. There was only one redeeming feature to the entire bout, and that was the fact that the dope books will carry down to posterity the information that Jim Flynn was engaged in one of the shortest bouts in history. The contest lasted twenty seconds and in that time Jack Dempsey never laid his glove on the "Pueblo trial horse." The men shook hands, Flynn put his head down and bowed. He got a left to Dempsey's face and had the local boy covering up and not knowing what to do. As Jack dropped his guard from his chin and peeked out, Jim put a right swing to the local boy's jaw, followed quickly with a right to the same spot, and Referee Ralph Armstrong counted ten. It was all over except hauling the "local pride" to his corner.

The entire show was handled in a way which has been characteristic in this vicinity for some time, the promoters "working" the public to a finish. There was the usual football rush to get in the single door to the hall—a good center rusher was sure of getting in—others had to sneak in.

The first preliminary between "Slim" Warden and Carl Ulgren went the scheduled four rounds to a draw. Neither man showed even curtain-raiser class. The Bratten twins, Aleck and John, aged 10 years, put on three one-minute rounds which caused plenty of mirth and showed the crowd what kids can do when given an opportunity.

Then there was the long, lonesome heartbreaking wait of one whole hour, sixty weary minutes with nothing to do but drink soda pop and peddle chin goods. To break the monotony, after thirty minutes of waiting, two of the Murray firemen climbed into the ring and put up three rounds of good amateur mulling. Another wait of fifteen minutes, and Ernie Wright of Murray, who had referred the preliminaries, put on the mitts and uttered a def. One "Chick" McGillis, former boxer, stepped into the squared circle and donned the other pair. It was a draw, but McGillis crushed in his white collar, mused his necktie and dirtied his cuffs, while Ern lost the part in his hair.

At the end of an hour the cheapest fiasco ever pulled in this locality was commenced. The next business man who surrenders real money to take in a bout "close in" will certainly demand that he get at least half his money's worth in preliminaries.

Ray of the Illinois Athletic club who, three weeks ago, established a new world's record for one mile and a half, broke George Bonhag's American record of 9:14 1-5 for two miles here tonight. He ran from scratch in the two mile handicap and with a magnificent sprint in the final lap, after he had passed all the other contestants to whom he had given liberal handicaps, broke the tape in 9:11 2-5, which is 1 4-5 seconds behind the world's record of 9:09 3-5, made by Al Shrubbs, of England, at Glasgow, Scotland, in 1904.
